Reference  Center®

Available via EBSCOhost®

Discover the past with EBSCO's most complete full-text history database.

Available through the library website, History Reference Center™ contains thousands of reliable resources — including primary source documents, biographies, photos, maps and more — to help you complete your research. With History Reference Center, you can...

- Search articles by keyword or browse by key time periods in U. S. and World History
- Limit search results to articles that match your reading level
- Hear HTML articles read aloud with EBSCO's Text-to-Speech feature
- Save articles and searches to your own personal folder for easy retrieval
- Use EBSCO's citation tool to properly cite sources in your research

History Reference Center includes resources for educators, too. Teachers can use the Curriculum Standards Module to correlate EBSCO content quickly and easily to national, state, or provincial curriculum standards.
